GEODIS RECOGNIZED AS “INVESTORS IN PEOPLE” IN DENMARK

GEODIS has been accredited silver standard for Investors in People for its Freight Forwarding Line of Business in Denmark. This accreditation demonstrates GEODIS’ commitment to high performance through high standards for people management.

Investors in People is an international standard for people management, defining what it takes to lead, support and manage people effectively to achieve sustainable results. Underpinning the standard is the Investors in People framework, reflecting the latest workplace trends, essential skills and effective structures required to outperform in any industry. Investors in People enables organizations to benchmark against the best in the business on an international scale.

Paul Devoy, Head of Investors in People, said: “We’d like to congratulate GEODIS. The Investors in People accreditation is the sign of a great employer, an outperforming place to work and a clear commitment to success. GEODIS can be extremely proud of its achievement.”

Commenting on the award, Anja Bonilla, Human Resources manager at GEODIS in Denmark, said: “The Danish GEODIS team is very proud to have received the Investors In People recognition. Being awarded the silver accreditation is a great acknowledgement of our organizational work and team spirit”.
