New appointment to the GEODIS executive committee

GEODIS, a world leader in transport and logistics, is pleased to announce the appointment of Camille Porgès as EVP Governance, Risks and Compliance. She will join the Group's executive committee, which is chaired by Marie-Christine Lombard, Chief Executive Officer of GEODIS.

Camille Porgès began her career in 2004 as a lawyer specializing in mergers and acquisitions at Clifford Chance LLP. In 2010, she joined satellite operator Eutelsat as senior legal counsel, with responsibility for the company's mergers and acquisitions. She was promoted to the position of group compliance and privacy director in 2017. In 2019, she joined the ATOS group as head of ethics and compliance and was appointed chief compliance officer in April 2022.

She has extensive experience in compliance, covering a broad range of areas from anti-corruption to data protection, human rights and economic sanctions, both in terms of prevention and investigation.

Camille graduated from the ESCP business school and holds a postgraduate degree in business law from Paris II Panthéon Assas University. She was admitted to the Paris bar in 2004.
